

NEW YORKER KILLS SELF IN DENVER

F. H. Enderby, Formerly a Well-Known Insurance Man, Commits Suicide by Taking Poison in Jail There.

Word was received from Denver, Col., to-day that F. H. Enderby, a former well-known insurance man of New York, had committed suicide by taking poison while a prisoner in the Denver City Jail.

Enderby had been arrested on complaint of his wife, who said he had gone to her milking establishment while drunk and had interfered with her business. She had him arrested on a similar charge on Dec. 12, but upon his promise to leave her alone withdrew her complaint.

In Enderby's pockets were letters from George A. Williams, with office in the Broad Exchange Building, No. 25 Broad street. They mentioned an electrical project that Mr. Williams was interested in, but Mr. Williams, who is a consulting engineer, said to-day that it was a personal matter and he could not speak of it. He had known Enderby for only a few years, Mr. Williams said, and was greatly surprised to hear that he had committed suicide. He said Enderby had gone to Denver for his health. J. M. Stevenson, who is with the Equitable Life Assurance Society, with an office at No. 228 Broadway, is also a friend of Enderby. He said to-day that he and Enderby were partners in the insurance business, but that ill-health forced Enderby to give up the work. He went to the Eye and Ear Infirmary, where he had an operation performed on the mastoid bone similar to that which Senator Clark underwent a few weeks ago.

At the time the surgeons told Enderby he had little chance to live and advised him to go west.

"I have not heard from Enderby since he went to Denver," said Mr. Stevenson, "but I feel sure that his mind must have been greatly affected by the operation and partly caused him to take his life. He seldom drank, Mrs. Enderby is a beautiful woman and Enderby was an unusually fine-looking man. They had one child, a girl, about eight years old. Enderby was an Englishman and thirty-seven years old."

YOUTHS CAUGHT IN HUNT FOR GAMBLERS

Charge of Swindling Causes an Early Morning Raid by the Chief of Police of New Rochelle.

In a raid on an alleged gambling house in New Rochelle early to-day a number of young men prominent in the town and in Larchmont were arrested and locked up.

The place was run as a cigar store and billiard hall, but Chief of Police Timmons was informed that gambling was going on upstairs. His information came from Charles Devaugh, who alleged that he had been swindled in one of the games.

Chief Timmons sent Sgt. Cody and a detail of five policemen to the place at 1 o'clock this morning. The policemen surrounded the place and after knocking in vain for admission, kicked down the doors. As the policemen rushed up the stairs they met a lot of young fellows coming down and drove them back.

Here they were rounded up and taken into custody.

BIG VANDERBILT HOUSE.

Willie K. Jr., Building Wings to His Long Island Home.

GREAT NECK, L. I., Dec. 28.—"Deep-Date," the country seat of W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is to have two additional wings made to it, and work was begun on them to-day. The new wings will be at the east and west ends of the present structure and each will be forty-five and ninety feet.

When the wings are completed the building, which faces on Success Lake, will have a frontage of 220 feet.

It is said that one of the additions is to be used for a ball room.

OLD MAN STARVED TO DEATH.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 28.—William Collins, who was more than seventy years old and who occupied miserable apartments in the basement of No. 24 Arlington street, was found dead there to-day. He had not been seen since the day before Christmas and neighbors asked the police to investigate. The police found the body of the old man, who was known as "Uncle Bill," in a rooming house. He was a negro and a favorite with all the children in the neighborhood, to whom he was known as "Uncle Bill."
